Alexander Vlaskamp, Chairman of the Executive Board of MAN Truck & Bus SE, added: "Inka Koljonen is a valuable addition to our Executive Board team. Her immediate action program at the beginning of the war in Ukraine played a key role in significantly minimizing the economic damage caused by the six-week production stop for our trucks. She is providing important impetus both in the ongoing transformation of MAN and with her cash initiative, among others. I would like to thank her and her team for their achievements to date and look forward to working with her in the future."

Inka Koljonen has been Executive Board member for Finance, IT and Legal at MAN Truck & Bus SE since February 2022. Prior to this, she worked at commercial vehicle supplier SAF Holland, where her responsibilities on the Executive Board included Accounting & Controlling, Financing & Treasury, IT and Legal. Prior to that, she was Business Unit CFO at Clariant AG and CFO of Siemens Russia, among others, and also held management positions at MTU Aero Engines AG.

Inka Koljonen is a Finnish citizen, holds a degree in business administration from LMU in Munich and speaks next to her native language Finnish fluently German and five other languages.

MAN Truck & Bus is one of Europe's leading commercial vehicle manufacturers and transport solution providers, with an annual revenue of about 11 billion euros (2022). The company's product portfolio includes vans, trucks, buses/coaches and diesel and gas engines along with services related to passenger and cargo transport. MAN Truck & Bus is a company of TRATON GROUP and employs approx. 33,000 people worldwide.
